

HOW TO BECOME A HAIR TRANSPLANT SPECIALIST

REQUIRED KNOWLEDGE TO BECOME A HAIR TRANSPLANT SPECIALIST:

FIRST:

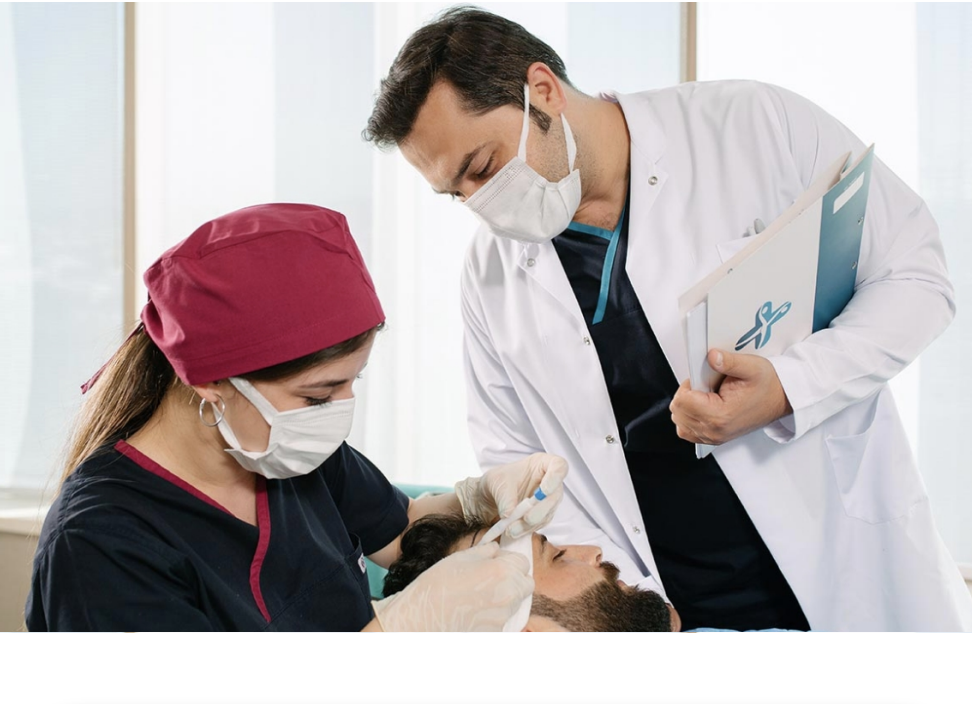

- Graduation in medical school, this is the usual medical education that lasts 6 years at the university

SECONDLY:

- Completion of the medical- aesthetic specialized trainings set by the Ministry of Health
- Botox training
- Hyaluron training
- PRP training
- Hair transplantation training

THIRD:

- Completion of training in a clinic
- Required work experience
- Managing the processes in the clinic
- Training for grafts harvesting
- Training for the transplantation of grafts
- Training of the different methods
- Training in the FUE method
- Training in team management

ADVANTAGES OF BEING A HAIR TRANSPLANT SPECIALIST:

- ✔ Ensuring the time management of the patient and the doctor due to a planned procedure
- ✔ Ensuring that the procedure is performed according to the schedule due to the preliminary work
- ✔ Providing for academic studies due to the large patient spectrum
- ✔ Providing a free working environment as it can be performed anywhere in the world
- ✔ Benefiting from the happiness of the patients

THINGS YOU NEED TO PAY DETAILED ATTENTION TO AS A HAIR TRANSPLANT SPECIALIST:

- Since the procedure is performed on the facial area, more attention to the smallest details is required
- Since it is an aesthetic procedure, patients are overly sensitive to it
- The time it takes to see the final result
- The patient's impatience regarding the outcome of the procedure
- Ensuring continuity of communication in the team due to the application of the procedure by different people at different stages
- The process of the specialist due to the time consuming process results
- Maintaining the momentum of the specialist throughout the process

«Please note that the requirements for becoming a hair surgeon may differ from country to country. We therefore suggest consulting the ISHRS if you want more information»